

Dangerous Beauty: Medusa in Classical Art

THE DR. JOHN AND HELEN COLLIS LECTURE

An Annual Lecture Devoted to Ancient Greek and Byzantine Art

Dr. Kiki Karoglou

Associate Curator of Greek and Roman Art
The Metropolitan Museum of Art

Sunday, September 29, 2019, 2:00 p.m.
The Cleveland Museum of Art

FREE; reservations required. Reserve tickets at 216-421-7350
or online at engage.clevelandart.org starting August 1.

Chariot pole finial with the head of Medusa (detail) (Roman, Imperial, 1st-2nd century CE), bronze, silver, and copper, height: 7 1/4 inches, width: 7 inches; diameter: 4 1/4 inches (courtesy the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York; Rogers Fund, 1918)